Senate update

Franckiewicz files limited zoning bill

BY TRACI BONNEY
Some progress is being made in Jackson in restoring local zoning authority, according to Senator Vic Franckiewicz.

He reported Tuesday that he is contacting the three state tax commissioners, who also are serving as the state gaming commission at this time, about a proposed regulation that would respect local zoning. He said response so far has been positive.

In addition, Franckiewicz has introduced a Senate bill that would allow local governments to zone only portions of the unincorporated area of a county.

He said Hancock County is in a situation where the south part of the county needs zoning regulations, but the north part doesn't. His bill, if passed, would give the county Board of Supervisors the authority to zone only those parts of the county that need to be zoned to help regulate and encourage residential and business development.

The bill was still in subcommittee Tuesday, but Franckiewicz said the feedback he had received was good.

This opinion, if upheld, could take zoning control out of the hands of local government.

Zoning authority has been a major consideration in the issue of dockside gambling. The Bay St. Louis City Council and the Planning and Zoning Commission were considering zoning amendments that city officials believed would allow local reg-

California murder suspect in Hancock County jail

BY TRACI BONNEY
A San Diego man is being held without bond in the Hancock County jail in connection with the murder of a 71-year-old California woman, according to Mississippi Highway Patrol Trooper Houston Dorr.

Dorr and Trooper David Murtagh arrested Lorne Wesley Schultz, 47, shortly after midnight Tuesday at the Interstate 10 rest area when he pulled a gun on them during a license check.

Dorr said he and Murtagh spotted a 1989 Chrysler with no tag while on a routine patrol, and approached the vehicle to run a check.

"David approached the car on the driver's side, while I went up to the passenger side," Dorr recounted. "The occupant of the car was on the passenger side. I tapped on the window, and he woke up.

"I asked for his license, but got no response, so I motioned for him to roll down the window. He reached for his keys and put the window down, but one hand stayed out of sight."

Repeated queries about the lack of a car tag and requests for a driver's license produced no response from the man, so Dorr

Rally for the troops

Show your support Saturday at the track

BY JANET MCQUEEN
The Hancock County Walking Track will serve as a gathering place Saturday for a support rally for our troops in Operation Desert Storm.

Organizer Ames Kergosien hopes the event "will be the largest one in the state" to reflect a community united behind their country.

Basil Kennedy, president of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce will welcome participants, beginning at 3 p.m.

Retired Brigadier General Wallace E. Farragut of Pass Christian will serve as master of ceremonies; Commander Jack O. Moody, Naval Oceanographic Command, Stennis Space Center, will be the featured speaker.

American Legion Post 139 of Bay St. Louis and Post 77 of Waveland will present the colors. All veterans organizations and auxiliaries in the county will be represented at the event, along with many Boy Scout troops.

The singing of the National Anthem will be led by Sherry Schwabacher and John Mason. The Reverend Cuthbert O'Connell, pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, will deliver the invocation, while the Reverend Van Carpenter of Main Street United Methodist Church will offer benediction.

Rally participants will be asked to join in the singing of America the Beautiful and God Bless America.

Students from Bay High School and Hancock High will read the names of the men and women deployed to Operation Desert Storm from Hancock County. A sign with the name of each serviceman, designed by volunteers with the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, will be placed along the walking track, according to Olivia Roland, chamber executive director.

Vial of Life available to community residents

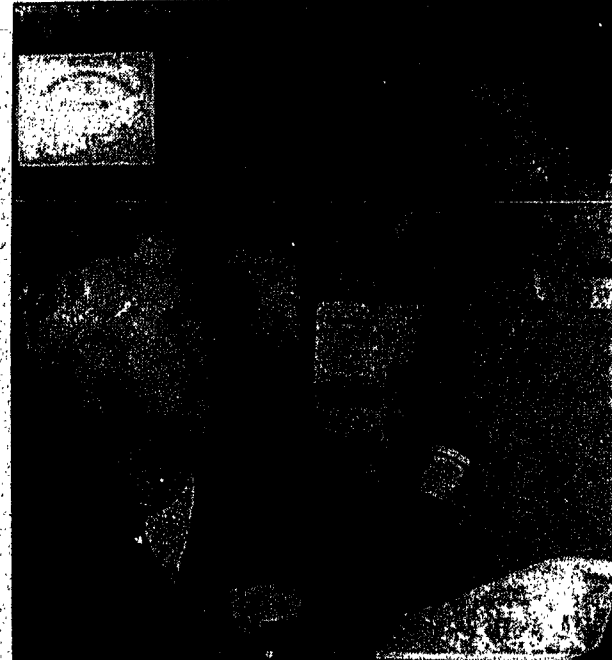

BY TRACI BONNEY
If you were in an emergency situation, would you be able to give paramedics or hospital personnel all the vital information about your medical history?

If you had a Vial of Life in your home, you would not have to remember all those details. The small plastic prescription bottle, which contains the medical histories of a residence's occupants, could save time and lives.

The Vial of Life program will be offered free of charge to the public starting Monday, according to program coordinator Betty Kielty of Hancock Medical Center. The program is being administered by the HMC Auxiliary, the Pink Ladies, in conjunction with the Civil Defense office.

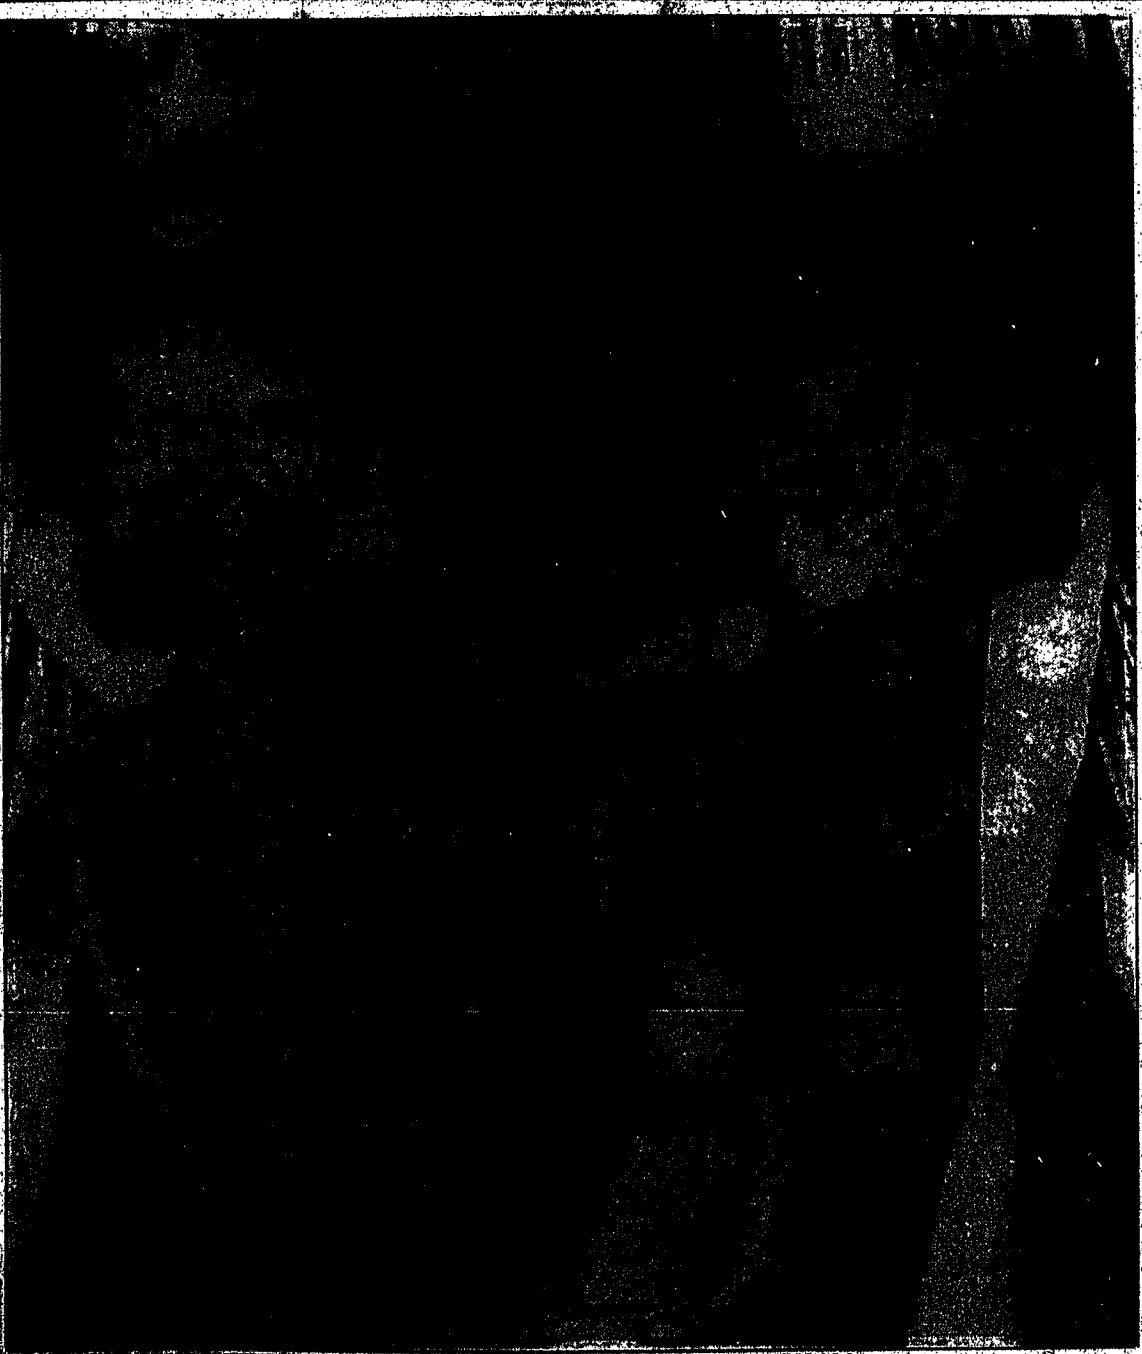

The program was started with the elderly and handicapped in mind, but Kielty said it is a good idea for anyone who lives alone, for single parents and just about everyone to have a Vial of Life.

The Vial of Life, which comes with an

KILLING TIME

By Traci Bonney

Putting your best foot forward

It's that time of year — the Mississippi Press Association's Better Newspaper Contest.

This is an opportunity for newspaper editorial staffs throughout the state to find out how they stack up against other newspaper editorial staffs.

Sounds fun, right? Hah! Don't get me wrong; I have absolutely nothing against winning awards. However, doing the work involved in vying for those awards is another matter.

To start with, there are nine — count 'em, nine — separate individual awards for writing. In addition, there are seven individual awards for photography.

There are also in the BNC 11 overall newspaper awards categories.

I'm glad I don't have to select every single entry we will submit. I'm having enough difficulty deciding which of my own stories and photos to give Janet for this contest.

I'm discovering just how hard it is to put your best foot forward when it's stuck in the glues of indecision and favoritism.

If you've ever had to select your best whatever to put on display, you know what I'm going through.

How does one decide? Sometimes it isn't difficult; if someone raves about it, use it. That's how I decided which feature photo and feature story to submit.

In some cases, your choices are limited. For the "series of stories" category, for example, I could pick from the infamous dockside gambling saga or the set of articles I wrote about Du Pont's early warning system. The saga won.

Sometimes, though, choosing one thing over another — photo, poem, recipe, handcraft project, whatever — is an exercise in intellectual and emotional torment. You're torn between picking the best thing and your favorite thing.

As most of you know, "best" and "favorite" are not always the same. Sometimes they are, as in "teacher's pet" (usually the best-behaved student, who also receives the highest grades), but sometimes "favorite" simply means "best-liked" and has nothing to do with merit or quality.

That was the problem with my column. Given my druthers, I'd submit about half the ones I've written since last March. However, I could only use three, and one had to be from the July 26 edition — a column that is not one of my best, by any standards.

So what do you do? You pick two others and hope they are indeed your best ones.

Well, break's over. Let me get back to pulling out my hair in frustration — uh, I mean picking my entries for the Better Newspaper Contest.

Gulf Coast Women's Center opens local office Monday

BY JANET MCQUEEN

Women in abusive situations now have a place to turn in Bay St. Louis.

Connie Avera, outreach coordinator with the Gulf Coast Women's Center, will maintain office hours each Monday at the Hancock County Youth Court Building.

The Gulf Coast Women's Center offers assistance to victims of rape and incest, as well as to battered wives and their children. There is no charge for their services.

A counselor is assigned to each case, who remains at the victim's side all the way through the court process, according to Avera.

If additional counseling is needed, the victim is referred to Gulf Coast Mental Health Center or a private practitioner, depending on her resources. Counseling is also available for children of the victim.

A shelter in Harrison County is open as a safe haven for victims of physical abuse in all Coast counties. Children are welcome.

"In cases of domestic violence, if a woman wants to file charges against her husband or boyfriend, we are right by her side," said Avera.

Parenting skills are taught to those who attend support group meetings, and the effects of emotional abuse are addressed by counselors who seek to improve a victim's self-esteem.

Avera will speak to civic groups on a variety of topics, including sexual assault and domestic violence. Appointments may be made by calling collect, 435-1968.

Volunteers are needed by the center to man a 24-hour crisis line, which Hancock County residents may also call collect, 435-1968.

RSVP hosts Mardi Gras at Welcome Center

The Retired Senior Volunteer Program will have a Mardi Gras celebration at the Hancock County Welcome Center on Saturday, Feb. 2 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

"QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

Saturday is going to be a busy day in Hancock County with several things of interest scheduled.

At 3 p.m. everyone is invited to a major Support our Troops festivities to be held at the Walking Track in front of the Hancock Medical Center, U.S. Highway 90 at Drinkwater.

There are a lot of folks involved in this special program which is being coordinated by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

The program is to last only for one hour, I am told, and it sure would be good to have a record crowd to attend this event.

We have so many of our men and women involved in Operation Desert Storm.

We need to let our military know that we appreciate them and stand behind them.

If you need any information on Saturday's special program, call the chamber.

Any group offering any support in any capacity to military personnel or family members here at home, please call the chamber office at 467-9048. The chamber would like to know the purpose and focus of the group and a contact person and telephone number.

Libby Roland, chamber executive director, said this is the type of information people call the chamber to obtain, and the chamber would like to have this information on file so they can pass it along to other groups and individuals.

At 1 p.m. Saturday, the Krewe of Kids, will roll for the 13th year in the Cedar Point area of Bay St. Louis.

This is a big fun time for our younger people, as it gives them time to participate in a parade for young people.

The parade forms and begins at North Bay Elementary and will move North on Dunbar.

All children are invited to attend. No motorized vehicles are allowed. Bicycles, wagons and skate are welcome and also marching groups as scouts and youth groups.

It seems the parade has a larger number of participants each year.

It is so good to see the youngsters in the parade and see how they enjoy themselves.

The youngsters like to see a good lineup of spectators for the parade just like the adults do.

The Krewe of Nereids, followed by the Krewe of Eros and Krewe of Hancock is scheduled to roll at 1 p.m. on Sunday, February 3.

The parade is one hour earlier this year, so do not forget to make a note of this.

The Krewe of Nereids has been rolling through the streets of Waveland now for 25 years.

The parade begins on U.S. 90 at Nicholson Avenue and travels East to Katie's Kandy Shop and then West along U.S. 90.

Comments sought on unit system

Governor Ray Mabus has established a task force to evaluate the effectiveness of the County Government Reorganization Act of 1988.

This law was passed to allow county government to operate more efficiently, more economically and with greater accountability to the people it serves.

The task force is composed of county government officials (including supervisors, chancery clerks, county administrators, board attorneys and county engineers), legislators and private citizens from across the state.

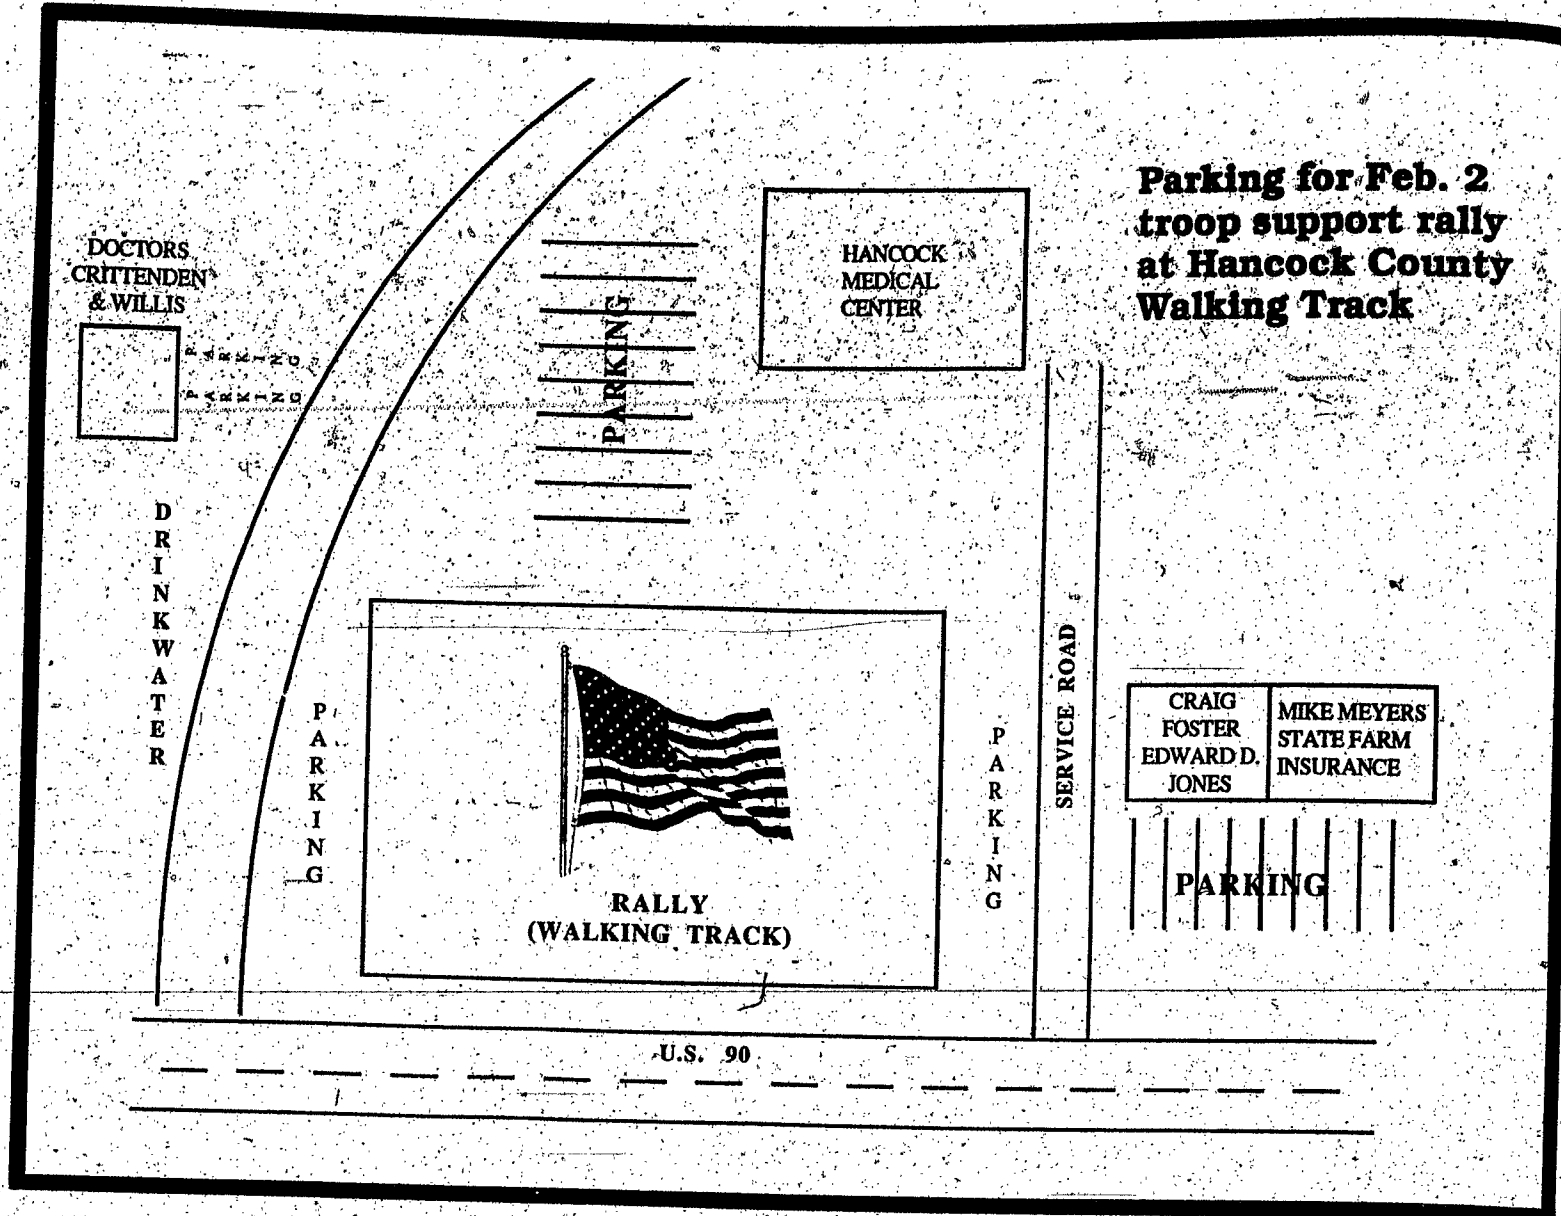

The mission of the task force will be to study the effectiveness and efficiency in those counties served by the County Unit System. The task force will also offer recommendations that will help counties in strengthening the system.

The task force encourages the public to offer testimony concerning county government.

Comments may be sent to the County Unit Task Force in care of the Office of Management Studies and Audits, 455 North Lamar Street, Jackson, MS 39202.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Taylor's vote was right; war rages while Bush watches

Dear Editor,

I don't mean to be disrespectful, but I can't muster up much sympathy for President Bush's complaint about being held captive in the White House by Saddam Hussein of Iraq.

There are more than a few soldiers in Saudi Arabia who will gladly swap their foxholes with him if his cabin fever gets too unbearable.

Besides, the weather this time of year in Kennebunkport is not very suitable for golfing and fishing, anyway.

I hope he remembers that he was racing the weather to get the war started. I have noticed that his generals have stopped saying that the war is right on schedule. They are now saying that they are in no hurry.

Generals should know you can't schedule wars, and you can't outrun the weather when the enemy is stalling.

Congressman Gene Taylor was right for voting to continue the sanctions. So what if sanctions take time? Wars take time and lives.

I wonder if Dan Quayle will go back over there now and tell the troops, "You will do your job and get it over with and go home to your loved ones?" He made it sound like going to the dentist to get a tooth extraction over with.

To many, the war will never be over with. They will come home without arms and legs. Some will come home with their faces and their manhood blown away, and many will never come home at all.

It's too late now. We have crossed the Rubicon. Crossing the Euphrates and the Tigris will be more difficult, I promise you.

Saudi-bound soldier searches for answers

To the Editor,

As I try to sort through my psyche for any semblance of sense out of the situation I face, I realize that I just cannot. Just as I suspect thousands of other young men and women in or departing for the Middle East cannot.

I am searching for simple answers in a complex world. I look to my philosophy (which is growing and evolving every day) for my feelings about this world crisis that is so disrupting my life.

I am a soldier. I am a conscientious objector. To me, war is a crime against the earth. Within the human spectrum, war violates the very essence of life, love. What happened to the ancient wisdom that taught that in the great mystery of life it is each and every individual's own responsibility to live a virtuous life with respect to all other living things, or the more recent teaching of our Golden Rule: Treat others as you would have them treat you.

What am I to do with this Golden Rule when I face another in mortal combat? Should I with a pure mind attempt a peaceful resolution to the conflict between our respective cultures and possibly die for my peaceful intentions?

Or should I cloud my mind with the national delusion called patriotism and kill for my country which calls so loudly for world peace? These are questions for everyone.

When I hear things like, "This madman must be stopped," I question the intentions of the German, French, English, Russian and, yes, even the true-blue American people, who, when business was good, supplied this "madman" with implements of horrific death and destruction. The creation turns on the creators.

The successes and shortcomings in our foreign policy are solely the responsibility of our elected commander-in-chief. This should be in the mind of every United States citizen.

I would like to touch upon one last point about total support of our President versus positive public opposition (dissent); this is exactly what should not be, one side against the other. The thought of this crisis splitting my generation is one of my greatest fears.

The right to public dissent is a freedom any supporter of the war has to recognize as essential to our way of life. Dissent doesn't mean disloyalty, in fact, quite the opposite. Take me, for example. I morally oppose war, and yet, pursuant to Presidential Executive Order of January 18, 1991, I am going to war.

Peace, love and light, Jonathan R. Clark

Let's show our support of troops on Feb. 2

Dear Editor,

On behalf of all the members of Bourgeois-Stieffel-Ray Post 77, The American Legion, Waveland, I wish to convey our congratulations and appreciation to Ames Kergosien and all who are working with him to organize the 'Support the Troops' festivities at the Hancock County Walking Track on Feb. 2.

I am sure most Americans feel as I do, that protesting against any action our government takes is a freedom that we defend. However, the recent protesters had more than five months to have their say before military action started, and now I feel very strongly that their timing is poor, at best, their values badly misplaced, and their direction terribly misguided. Their present protests are negative, because they serve only to promote divisiveness within the country and to lower the morale of our troops who so desperately need all the support we can give them.

As one post commander so ably said, while addressing the recent state Mid-Winter Conference of The American Legion in Meridian, "It's time to protest against the protesters."

I am very much in agreement with that idea.

I urge all who read this to attend the Support the Troops festivities to show our feelings for the troops and their families.

Sincerely,
Lawrence Freeman,

Coast residents on Tuesday had a glimpse of several squads of the United States Navy's huge bombing planes flying overhead on their way to New Orleans and for a time, several of them circled over Bay St. Louis and made many of us wonder when and if we would some time see others than our own Naval boats overhead. The roar of the giant motors can be heard long before the planes can be seen and really strike terror and awe in one's mind. Our sympathy goes out to the people who have been hearing the roar of enemy planes over the islands.

government if state officials think local ordinances are operating contrary to state law.

Concerning the gaming control act cleanup bill introduced by Frankiewicz last week, he said, "Those I have talked to think it's a healthy set of amendments. They also say it will be a hard row to hoe, because of the highly political nature of the issue."

Frankiewicz has been almost constantly under fire since the beginning of the January legislative session for his vote on funding a gaming commission. The commission funding appropriation failed 25-26 in the Senate, with Frankiewicz's ballot being one of the "no" votes.

He has maintained that his negative vote echoes his concern for tightening and clarifying the gaming control act before it is implemented. His latest vote lines up with his vote on the Mississippi Gaming Control Act during the 1990 special legislative session, when he cast a ballot against the act, citing the same reasons he voiced earlier this month.

One of the most recent attacks on the senator has come from the Ad Hoc Committee For Legislator Responsibility, a local group which claims to have 60 members. In a January 23 release, the committee accused Frankiewicz of setting aside the legal mandate of the voters of Hancock County, and/or holding the legally mandated will of the voters of Hancock County in contempt.

Frankiewicz responded, "I'm sorry the whole issue has degraded into an emotional character assassination."

He said he thinks the committee's release missed the point of his vote, which he has repeatedly stated is to assure the residents of the counties where dockside gaming is legal that the gaming control act will actually do what is was intended to do.

"I want to reiterate my commitment to work with both sides on this issue. The gaming proponents have a right to the business the state's newest industry will generate, but at with an explanatory sheet and a medical history form, is meant to be placed in the refrigerator. Kiely said this serves three purposes: most residences have refrigerators; in the case of a fire, the refrigerator is not likely to burn; and emergency personnel "can look in a particular spot for the Vial of Life when they evacuate a person or transport him to the hospital."

Kiely said, "If this program saves one or two lives, it will be worth the effort."

The Civil Defense's role in the program is of a slightly different nature.

Civil Defense director Bobby Boudin said he created a form that will be distributed with the Vial of Life materials to those people who have some sort of handicapping condition: being bed-ridden, wheelchair-bound or on oxygen, or having to use a cane, crutch or walker to move about, among others. This form will allow emergency personnel to pinpoint those with handicapping conditions in the event of a situation that calls for evacuation, such as a flood.

Boudin said he wants to eventually develop a color-coded pin system to be used with a county map.

"That way, when he have to evacuate an area, we can look at that square on the map and know if anyone lives there who needs assistance in evacuating," he explained.

Vials of Life will be issued by the Pink Ladies on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Hancock Medical Center lobby desk. Senior Citizens and members of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program may obtain the Vials at their Bay St. Louis center.

Henry L. Otis left his home at Logtown on Saturday, January 11, for Norfolk, Virginia, for service in the United States Navy. He reached the Navy yard on Monday morning and on Thursday was assigned to the Aircraft Carrier "WASP" as a Radioman, and on the day following he was appointed an instructor for sailors starting to learn radio works.

Turn Over a New Leaf By Subscribing to This Paper.

JANUARY 24, 1896

There was never a measure, it is safe to assert, which ever received such abuse and was so unpopular as the imposition on our people disguised under law and labeled a road tax, making it compulsory for all male residents of the place between the ages of 18 and 55 years pay in addition to their regular taxes and whether they use the roads or not an annual stipend of two dollars. If unable to pay, the laboring man is made absent from his duty on which depends the life of his home and give the city three days of his time. The life of the present local legislative body is too short for any appeal to be made for a total abolition—not an amendment, but it must be completely wiped out. For relief of this burden all eyes are turned towards the coming administration, and we place much faith that if proper consideration has been given the question no fair minded body of men would have ignored its abolition. The objective features and the unjust discrimination made by the road tax law are too numerous and being well known there is no need of review here, but the object is to keep in the procession of the adverse sentiment, and we wish to help fight and wipe it out completely. Absurdities of such a serious phase are not to be tolerated.

asked for the car keys. The man handed them to the trooper, but remained silent and uncooperative, Dorr said.

"When I put the keys in the lock and started to open the door, both the man's hands went out of sight. I thought he was trying to keep the door closed, and I told him we had to get him out of the car so we could talk to him.

"As I tried to open the door, I got a funny feeling that maybe he had a gun. I said, 'Sir, do you have a weapon in there?'"

"When I asked him that, he pulled up a rifle and started to aim it at my chest. I grabbed the rifle and drew my weapon at the same time. David came around to help me, and we had a little scuffle before we subdued the man and took away the weapon, a 6.5-caliber high-powered Italian army rifle."

After running a check on the car, the officers found out it was stolen from California. Upon running a passport check on the man, they found out his identity and that he was wanted for counterfeiting and forgery.

Further investigation into Schultz's criminal record revealed that he was the prime suspect in the murder of his mother, 71-year-old Mayme Flagg Schultz of California, who had been reported missing in December and who owned the stolen car.

Her body was found wrapped in blankets and quilts along Mississippi Highway 6 near Oxford earlier this month, Dorr said. He stated that an autopsy showed the cause of death to be massive head trauma.

Dorr said the MHP had found physical evidence in the car to link Lorne Schultz to the murder.

Schultz is being held for extradition by the San Diego Sheriff's Office, Dorr said.

"Let's Have Dinner."

"Your Desk Or Mine?"

For Doctors Jeanne and Robert Eddington, dinner is no ordinary occasion. Because as OB-GYNs who are married to each other, the doctors know that their meals will be occasionally—or frequently—interrupted for a special delivery. The birth of a new baby.

As parents themselves, the Eddingtons know that newborns come at all times. And in all sizes. They also understand the emotional demands pregnancy creates for expectant parents. So they know how to help you deal with these emotions.

The Eddingtons also know that few experiences are more beautiful than the birth of a child. It's one of the reasons they chose their profession.

Another reason they chose to become doctors was to help others. That's why they offer a full range of obstetric and gynecological care, for women and adolescents. Plus the emotional support you need. So when you come to the Eddingtons for care, you're not just treated as a patient. You're treated like a friend.

It's the caring attitude patients appreciate most. And it makes special times—like the birth of your baby—much easier. No matter what time your newborn chooses to arrive.

So if your baby's arrival interrupts their meal, the doctors don't mind. Because whether or not it's dinnertime, the Eddingtons deliver.

Eaglebrook opens at Port Bienville

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Eaglebrook Inc., a manufacturing plant for water treatment chemicals, had its official opening Monday to the applause of county officials and company representatives.

Hancock County Port and Harbor Director Harold "Buz" Olsen said the $2 million plant is expected to generate yearly, a half million dollars in payroll. Eaglebrook presently employs 15 local people, and according to the company's president Ron Tenny, "We are looking at future expansion of a different product," which will mean more jobs.

"Water treatment chemicals are in big demand with all the industries here in the South," Eaglebrook makes a water treatment chemical called "FerriClear" from iron salts.

"We choose to use iron over aluminum sulfate because we feel it is safer," said Tenny.

He explained that "FerriClear" gathers the unwanted products into a coherent mass which is then removed, leaving the water pure.

Tenny said the product is used in drinking water purification as well as wastewater treatment.

The Hancock County site was chosen because of available barging and its proximity to a southeastern market, stated Tenny.

Eaglebrook's home plant, begun in 1973, is in Shererville, Indiana. Today, the company proudly boasts of plants in Montreal and Toronto, Canada, Cleveland, Ohio and a terminal facility in Houston, Texas.

Tenny complimented the new facility Monday, for its efficiency and cleanliness, saying it was "more in keeping with a food processing plant."

Jerry Derka is the production manager for the Industrial Park plant.

The Hancock County facility broke ground last April and has been in production since November 30.

Exempt sports licenses cost millions

Millions of dollars that could go to the financially strapped Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks are being lost in the form of exempt hunting and fishing licenses.

Exempt licenses, issued by the 82 counties since 1926, but without mandated control by the MDWFP, are given free of charge to persons meeting medical and other criteria.

Based on a recent department review, about 35 to 40 percent of all residents are hunting and fishing for free, said Bill Quisenberry, MDWFP director of support services. The review was based on reports from the field, a survey by the Southeastern Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies and site checks.

In October, state conservation officers examined registers of exempt license holders on file in all county courthouses.

"What they found may go a long way in explaining why our department is not selling more hunting and fishing licenses," Quisenberry said.

"Officers found records for varying time periods in 64 counties. No records were reported in 18 counties, even though a 1978 state law requires these records be kept by circuit clerks," he said.

Quisenberry said 62,273 exempt hunting and fishing licenses were issued during all reporting periods examined.

"This is just a small sample of the total number of licenses issued by those counties that have records that can be examined. Who knows how many exempt licenses have been issued in the counties where records have not been kept," he said.

An average of 12,637 exempt licenses are issued each year in the 64 counties keeping records, he said. Last year, sportsmen bought 418,860 resident licenses statewide, for a total of $4.3 million.

Based on the records reviewed, 98 percent of the exemptions issued for disability were based on Social Security benefits.

State law requires that a person be 100 percent disabled to be eligible for an exempt license under Social Security. However, if a person is receiving Social Security benefits, he is considered totally disabled by Social Security.

"So, if a person is 10 percent disabled, he can get the necessary paperwork and get a license for free," Quisenberry said.

"There is no question there are some legitimate reasons for granting exempt licenses," Quisenberry said, "but I am convinced the current system is being abused."

As important as the initial money lost to exempt licenses is the federal aid money coming back to Mississippi for game and fisheries programs, Quisenberry said.

Federal dollars connected with these programs are based in part on the number of hunting and fishing licenses sold. "And we can't count the exempt licenses," he said.

About 40 percent of federal aid monies apportioned to the MDWFP are based on annual license sales.

Quisenberry said the MDWFP will recommend the following measures to this session of the legislature:

—any citizen who has reached 65 years old should be required to purchase a hunting and/or fishing license at a reduced price.

—require citizens over the age of 12 to purchase a license.

—require exempt hunting and fishing licenses to be issued only from the Jackson office of the Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks.

—continue exempting persons with 100 percent service-connected disability.

—continue exempting persons blind, paraplegic, multiple amputee, or those adjudged 100 percent disabled by the Veterans Administration.

—Eliminate all exemptions for those adjudged disabled by Social Security and the Railroad Retirement Board.

—require all exempt hunting and fishing licenses issued in the past be declared null and void.

The 1926 law provided for exempt licenses said that those under 16 years old did not need a license to hunt and fish.

In 1942 an exemption was granted to those over 65. Then in 1954 female residents were exempted from needing a hunting and fishing license, but this provision was rescinded in 1966.

In 1971 a license exemption was granted to persons adjudged to have 100 percent service-connected disability. Two years later, anyone blind, paraplegic, multiple amputee, or adjudged totally disabled by the Veterans Administration or the Social Security Administration was given a license exemption.

In 1987 those considered totally disabled by the Railroad Retirement Board were exempt from purchasing hunting and fishing licenses.

Queen Doris XXV, King Nereus XXV reign over Nereids 25th Bal Masque.

Special to the Echo
On the night of January 19, the Krewe members of Nereids shared with their audience the special joy of celebrating their silver anniversary.

Nereids pondered long and hard for both a title and a theme to commemorate their "past."

In the final deliberation, it was decided to do a "twist" and offer a unique insight to carnival happenings. So with "tongue-in-cheek," the Krewe of Nereids invited their guests to enjoy their tableaux, which presented "themes" they never did in a cleverly-titled bal masque—"The Way We Never Were!"

The Krewe of Nereids recalled their past through presentation of former Queens of the Court escorted by former Kings. In keeping with tradition, Nereids does not reveal the names of their Queens.

Former Kings presented were:
King Nereus II Merlin R. Markel
King Nereus XIII Luke Caruso
King Nereus XIV Robert W. Wyatt Jr.
King Nereus XV Donald W. Diboll
King Nereus XVII Thomas

W. Kidd
King Nereus XVIII Gerald C. Gex
King Nereus XIX Alvin G. Bernard
King Nereus XXI Joseph W. Gex and King Nereus XXII William B. Whitfield.

Presenting the "Future of Nereids," Daughters of Nereids were introduced. They included:
Miss Cynthia Ann Martinolich
Miss Karen Emilie Breath
Miss Dina Gerette Hitt
Miss Nancy Leigh Triche
Miss Kristy Lee Kidd
Miss Michelle Renee Strong
Miss Elizabeth Ann Gex
Miss Victoria Lynn Kimbrell and Miss Susan Elizabeth Treutel.

Portraying the "candles" on the anniversary cake, krewe officers extended a welcome to the ball as they symbolized "Nereids Present."

The Captain of Nereids, attired in a red beaded and fringed costume, ascended from the silver anniversary cake. Her elaborate headpiece and collar were a profusion of red plumes and rhinestones. As the tableau unfolded, guests enthusiastically responded as krewe members reflected on why they never danced in Jamaica.

Maids and Dukes of the Royal Court portrayed "Classics From the Opera Stage," because Nereids has "never" before gone to the opera.

The first Maid and Duke were from Verdi's glorious opera, "Aida." The Maid represented Amneris, daughter of the King of Egypt, her Duke was Rhamdames, Captain of the Guard. Both were attired in teal blue and gold peau de soire adorned with sequined appliques of gold. Their headdresses of blue plumes were studded with rhinestones.

From Moussorgsky's Russian opera, "Boris Godounov," the Maid was Xenia, daughter of Boris; her Duke was "Boris, Councilor of Czar Feodor.

They were costumed in emerald green peau de soire accented with white velvet and adorned with appliques of rhinestones. Their headdresses were of green plumes and rhinestones. The third Maid was Princess Turandot and her Duke was Prince Calaf from Giacomo Puccini's Oriental tribute "Turandot."

Their costumes were red and gold peau de soire adorned with gold and silver appliques. Their headdresses of red plumes were adorned with rhinestones.

From Giuseppe Verdi's love story "La Traviata" our Maid was a courtesan, Violetta Valery. Her Duke was Alfredo Germont, her lover.

Both were in pink and white peau de soire accented with rhinestone appliques. The Maid was in a hoop skirt which was accented with large bows. Headdress of the Duke followed the color scheme of pink and white, while the Maid had an overstated wig of the era.

From Rossini's comic opera, "The Barber of Seville," our Maid was Rosina, ward of Dr. Bartolo and her Duke was Count Almaviva. Both were stunning in purple velvet. Headdresses were a profusion of purple plumes.

The last Maid represented Gilda, daughter of the Jester Rigoletto and her Duke was The Duke of Mantua from Giuseppe Verdi's classic "Rigoletto."

They were striking in costumes of royal blue and burgundy peau de soire heavily adorned with gold beaded braiding. Headdresses complemented the costumes with royal blue plumes accented with rhinestones.

Silver Anniversary Queen Doris XXI was splendidly attired in a gown of black and silver lace encrusted with silver appliques and Austrian rhinestones.

King Nereus XXV followed suit in his costume echoing the design of the queen's. Both mantles featured a cloth of black velvet trimmed in ermine with silver appliques of crowns and the Nereids monogram.

Both collars featured black plumes accented with white plumes adorned with rhinestones. Their crowns were silver with rhinestones as accents.

After presentations were made, krewe members entertained their royal majesties with a precision number from "Singing in the Rain." Entertainment continued with a production number of "Jailhouse Rock."

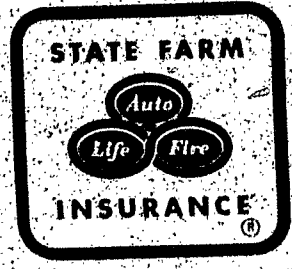

"See me for all your family insurance needs."

Tigers take E. Central

Bay High's boys basketball team ended the home court season on high note Tuesday night with a win over East Central, 72-68.

According to Coach Michael Ladner, the game was played before the largest crowd in several seasons. Spectators watched a "good crowd game" according to Ladner, who noted the two-up, two-down scoring in the second half.

The Tiger squad found themselves behind after first quarter play, 24-17. "We weren't shooting as well as we could," remarked Ladner, whose team rallied in the second quarter, picking up the defense.

The second quarter ended with a 23-13 score, leaving the Tigers on top, 40-37 at the half.

The third quarter was a dead heat, with both teams scoring 14 points. The fourth quarter also saw a closely played match, with Bay High adding 18 points to the board and East Central adding 17.

Four seniors were main contributors to the win, said Ladner, who commended Mike Sharpe, David Weems, Calvin Thigpen and James Mayfield for their efforts.

Sharpe earned 22 points, while contributing 8 rebounds, 4 assists and 3 steals. Weems netted 18 points, 4 rebounds and 2 assists; Thigpen gained 12 points, 4 rebounds and 2 assists; and Mayfield added 7 points, 3 rebounds and 6 assists.

Other Tigers scoring were seniors Kevin Couch, 4 points and 4 rebounds; Brian Necaise, 4 points; Travis Collins, 3 points; senior Miguel Mazarias, 2 points and 3 rebounds.

Ladner also noted the Tigers' strength with the 3-point shot, with seven 3-point baskets made for the night. Weems contributed four; Collins, Thigpen and Sharpe, each one.

Leading scorers for East Central were James Barnett, 25 points, and Buddy McCann, 22 points.

The Tigers will travel to St. John in Gulfport Friday. Next week Bay High will face rivals Hancock High School and St. Stanislaus.

Prior to the beginning of the Bay High-East Central game, the seniors and their parents were recognized by Coach Michael Ladner.

Rocks dunk Warriors 74-70

The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws edged the d'Iberville Warriors 74-70 Tuesday night to capture a Division 8 Class 4-A victory.

The Rocks started the game with a 17-6 lead at the end of the first period and ended the first half leading 30-26. In the opening minute of the second half, SSC regained a 10-point lead.

The Warriors cut the Rocks' lead to 47-45 near the end of the third period, but SSC scored 7 points to d'Iberville's 3 to close the period with a 54-48 lead.

The Rocks again moved their lead to 10 points, but watched the Warriors whittle it down to 2 with a 72-70 score at the 42-second mark.

d'Iberville then tried to tie the score with a long 2-point shot, but missed the mark.

Two 1-point foul shots by SSC capped the game.

Leading SSC scorers were Brandon Smith with 24 points, Erik York with 21 and Trent Terrell with 10. York also had 18 rebounds and Smith had 12 rebounds and five assists. Ken Booker contributed eight assists and five steals.

Coach Chuck Genin said, "We made some good decisions during the second half as d'Iberville came on with their rallies. We missed some free throws but made a couple right at the end of the game when we really had to have them."

"I felt our substitutes off the bench did a real good job when a couple of our starters got into trouble." SSC, 9-14 overall and 3-4 in division play, faces St. Martin Friday. If the Rocks win, they will finish division action in third place.

CEHS basketball team picks up two district wins

Special to the Echo
Coast Episcopal picked up two big district wins last weekend, defeating Rankin 84-54 Friday, then knocking off Chamberlain Hunt 70-69 Saturday afternoon.

Friday evening, freshman Tyrone Jones connected seven of seven 3-point shots and scored a game-high 28 points as the Raiders opened up a 49-20 halftime lead against Rankin. In the second half, all members of the Raider squad scored as they cruised to the easy victory.

Sophomore A.J. Ashe canned 16 points, followed by sophomore Dave Hagan and junior Chris Painter with 10 each. Seniors Bruce Hull and Paul Bernadas canned 8 and 5. Junior Adam Farragut and sophomores Nathan Guice and George Hlass each tossed in 2, while senior Jeff Homrig added 1.

Saturday afternoon, Jones canned a 3-point shot with 13 seconds left in the game to power the Raiders over Chamberlain Hunt 70-69, pushing the Raiders' overall record to 22-8 and their district mark to 8-2.

SSC, BHS soccer teams compete in 'classic' match

The St. Stanislaus soccer team squeaked past rival Bay High School 3-2 in double-overtime play Monday night to earn a chance at the state championship playoffs.

Bay High coach Kathy Edwards said Scott Barnes, BHS' leading scorer until Monday, was removed from the game in the first five minutes of play with an eye injury that sent him to the hospital. "I think that really effected our play," she commented.

However, she added that she thought the team played extremely well and showed a great deal of character and sportsmanship.

Joe Dobson scored both Bay High goals in regulation play, one unassisted in the first half and one in the second half on an assist from Peter Deigkers. SSC's goals in regulation play were scored by Kevin Jacobi, who put one in unassisted on a long power shot from 30 yards out, and Beau Schindler, who scored with a header on an assist from Jacobi's corner kick. The game stood at 2-2 at the end of regulation play.

The two teams played two 10-minute overtimes, a shoot-out and a sudden death shoot-out. During this time Bay High put in five more goals, but SSC netted six, with the winning goal coming in sudden death play and therefore being the one that counted.

SSC coach Mick Quinlan commended BHS goalkeeper Lee Murphree, who gave up only three of 37 SSC goal

Chamberlain Hunt defeated the Raiders earlier in the season 54-52.

Hull led the Raiders with 33 points, followed by Jones, who canned 14. Painter added 12; Ashe tossed in 10; and Farragut added 1.

The two victories guaranteed the Raiders a share of the regular season district crown and also assured them a bye in the opening round of the district tournament.

Tuesday night, Coast Episcopal placed five players in double figures and defeated Riverside of New Orleans 89-84.

In a game that saw the Raiders take 80 shots from the floor, Hull and Jones each tossed in 22 points with Painter adding 17. Ashe pumped in 14 with Hagan tossing in 10. Farragut and Bernadas canned 2 each.

The Raiders will be at home again Friday night when they take on Harvest Academy of Hammond, La.

Tipoff is 5 p.m. for the junior varsity team and 7 p.m. for varsity. The Raiders play in the CEHS gym on Espy Avenue in Pass Christian.

He also praised the SSC defense, which held Bay High to eight shots; the defensemen and sweeper for their work; Jacobi, who Quinlan said made two key saves during the shoot-out; the halfback line for taking control of the middle of the field; Trey Kidd and Kendall Daniels, whose crossing skills Quinlan said contributed heavily to SSC's 30+ crosses; and regulation play goalkeeper Brian Gagnon, who gave up only one goal to Bay High.

Both coaches thanked their teams' fans for their support, and Quinlan said, "I think this game is the best thing that could happen to the Bay-Waveland area to encourage the sport of soccer. This game will go down in people's memories for a long time. It was a classic game."

Bay High now stands at 5-4 for the season, with their next match being a home game tonight against St. John. Junior varsity play will start at 5:30, and varsity play will begin at 7. This match is also Senior Appreciation Night for the BHS team.

SSC, now the Division 8 runner-up, stands at 17-5-1 overall and 7-2 for the division. Their next match is Saturday, 1 p.m., in Jackson, when they face 10-1 Division 6 winner Forrest Hill in state playoff competition.

Tiger basketball

January brings several wins

Special to the Echo
By Coach Michael Ladner

The Bay High boys basketball team has played very constant basketball all season, and although giving away several inches in height per player against every opposing team, the scrappy, hard-working team has managed to move their record to 10 wins and 15 losses.

More recently, in the last two weeks, they have won four of five, losing only twice to perennial power Stone County at Stone, and in the St. Stanislaus goals besides wins on the scoreboard. I know we are achieving those goals.

Friday, January 25
Bay High, 50
St. Stanislaus, 49

The Tigers and the Rock-A-Chaws had a typical close and hard fought encounter in the St. Stanislaus Invitational, with the Tigers claiming a 50-49 victory.

Bay High never led in the game until the last hoop made by James Mayfield, and then the Tigers' defense did not allow goals besides wins on the scoreboard. I know we are achieving those goals.

David Weems, Travis Collins and Calvin Thigpen all had 6 points each. Mike Scharp led in rebounding with 3 for the Tigers along with 4 points.

Stone County place three players in double figures. Riccus Davis had 22; with Marcus Hinton, 13; and Sheldon Nelson 10.

Tuesday, January 22
Bay High, 80
Pearl River Central, 56

Bay High traveled to Pearl River Central and had one of their better shooting nights of the year, hitting 48 percent on the night, while holding off a young and inexperienced PRC team 80-56.

Three seniors had outstanding nights for the Tigers. James Mayfield and David Weems led all scorers with 21 points each. Mike Scharp dropped in 15 points and grabbed 6 rebounds.

Mayfield had a big night on the boards also ripping down 11 rebounds. Weems added four assist to his scoring effort.

Pearl River Central placed four players in double figures, Jameson Walker and Bob Dunhurst had 13 points each. Orlando Bufors had 12 and Barry Navarre 10 points.

Friday, January 18
Bay High, 47
Stone County, 84

The Stone County Tomcats for the second time this season proved physical size makes a difference in basketball, especially when there are two cats playing and one is in his own den, as Stone overpowered Bay High 84-47 in Wiggins.

David Weems was the only double figure scorer for Bay High with 21 points. Mike Scharp and Tristian Robertson added 7 and 5 points, respectively.

Stone County was led by Marcus Hinton with 25 points and Brad Bunch had 12 on the night.

Tuesday, January 15
Bay High, 78
Vanceave, 65

The Bay High Tigers overcame a 15-point halftime deficit while outscoring the Bulldogs of Vanceave 53-27 in the second half to take a 78-65 win in the Tiger Dome.

Bay High's victory over the 14-6 Bulldogs was accomplished with the help of a school record 11, three point field goals made in the contest.

The victory over the traditionally powerful district for was the first in the last nine tries for the Tigers versus Vanceave.

It was a great victory for us for several reasons. We beat a much taller team, we overcame a huge deficit in doing so, and the kids proved to themselves that they can beat Vanceave, which we have struggled to do in recent years.

The Tigers were led to victory by four seniors, all in their third year of varsity basketball at Bay High.

David Weems pumped in a game high 26 points with seven rebounds along with four assists. Mike Scharp had a good night with 19 points and 3 rebounds. James Mayfield added 14 points and matched Weems with 7 rebounds, while Calvin Thigpen had 7 points and four assist.

The fifth starter and Bay High's only junior Brian Nécaise played an important role in the victory with 6 rebounds and five assist.

Vanceave was led by Utah State signee Sanchez Turner with 20 points while Robert Williams and Elvin Battaya had 14 each.

Tournament.

The Tigers had a tremendous win over the 14-6 Vanceave Bulldogs at home with two more victories coming against district for Pearl River Central and cross-town rival St. Stanislaus this past Friday in the St. Stanislaus Tournament.

This is a tremendous group of young men. They don't stand tall physically, but if you could measure height in terms of heart, determination, effort, the ability to help one another and to get along as a family, these guys are giants.

These young men have played quality basketball this year and they are fun to watch and a joy to coach. When people watch them play they realize what super effort they give as a group.

I encourage anyone who hasn't seen us play to try and come out and watch this group of young men before the season ends.

This is my fourth year with the boys' program and we have improved each year with this year being our best of the four at 10 to 15 to date, and we are looking to improve it.

We had a team goal of doing the best we could do, and not worrying about records, because our guys know we are concerned with many other the Rock-A-Chaws to score in the last 17 seconds of the contest.

Bay High was led in scoring by senior David Weems who connected on five 3-point baskets and was the game's leading scorer with 26 points.

Mayfield, along with his last shot, made crucial free throws at the end in tallying 9 points for the game and 5 rebounds.

Mike Scharp, Calvin Thigpen and Tristian Robertson played key roles, defensively, in the fourth quarter with Scharp grabbing 6 rebounds and 2 steals; Thigpen, 5 rebounds and 4 steals; and Robertson, 5 rebounds and 5 steals.

St. Stanislaus placed three players in double figures, scoring with Eric York as high man with 20 points. Ken Booker got 11 points, and Brandon Smith added 10.

The Tomcats of Stone County, again for the second time within six nights, had too much height and physical advantage for the Tigers of Bay High as they took a 67-36 victory in the first round of the St. Stanislaus Invitational.

Lady Raiders lose to Riverside 47-37

Special to the Echo
In a tight game Tuesday night, the Lady Raiders of Coast Episcopal High School lost to Riverside 47-37, giving the Raiders a 2-3 record for the season.

With only a 1-point deficit at the half, the Lady Raiders stayed neck-and-neck with Riverside until early in the fourth quarter.

During the last quarter, Riverside out-rebounded and out-shot the Lady Raiders to pull ahead by 10 points at the game's end.

Scoring for Coast Episcopal, sophomore Megan Uram canned 22 points, followed by freshman Mirian Salloum and eighth grader Amy Dedeaux with 8 and 7 points respectively.

The Lady Raiders play again Friday night against Harvest Academy. Tipoff for the Lady Raiders is 6 p.m. at the CEHS gym on Espy Avenue in Pass Christian.

St. Stanislaus 9th graders defeat 'Cats, lose to Hawks

BY TRACI BONNEY

The ninth grade St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws stand at 4-9 for the season after defeating the Long Beach Bearcats and losing two games to the Hancock Hawks.

The Rocks lost against the Hawks 54-35 January 21 at Hancock High School, despite leading the third quarter scoring. Leading SSC scorers were Ray Ladner with 12 points and Vince Moran with 8.

Coach Andy Kivlan said the team had a slow day all around. "We just didn't seem to have it. No intensity, a very lackluster performance."

The Rocks regained some of their intensity in their next game, a conference tournament opener against the Bearcats January 22, when SSC edged the 'Cats 59-51.

A 10-point first quarter deficit didn't stop the Rocks, who regained the lost points in the second quarter with 19 points to the Bearcats' 8. A 10-point lead in the fourth quarter clinched the Rock-A-Chaws' win.

Leading SSC players were Imari Estes with 16 points; Andy Rethmeyer, 14; Brandon Benoit, 12; Troy Schwaif and Ray Ladner, 7 each.

Coach Kivlan said, "The 19-8 second quarter put us back in the game and seemed to breathe new life into us."

"We had lost to Long Beach twice already, but each time we played them tough. All we needed was a boost of confidence and a good team performance."

"The boys showed a lot of character coming back from a 10-point first quarter deficit. This was the opening round of the conference tournament and I guess they knew it was now or never. They came to play and giving up wasn't in their vocabulary, which was made evident by their fourth quarter performance."

Prior to the team's second game of the week against Hancock January 23, Kivlan was optimistic. However, SSC narrowly lost that game, their second conference tournament matchup, by a score of 50-44.

After trailing in the scoring for three quarters, SSC rallied in the fourth quarter to score 14 points to the Hawks' 9. However, it wasn't enough to turn the tide in favor of the Rocks.

With 19 points, Imari Estes was the only SSC player who Sometimes, It's Important To See The World Through A Child's Eyes.

No one knows that better than Dr. Candace Collins. She's a Pediatric Ophthalmologist. So she specializes in the testing and treatment of children's eyes. And she does this from a child's point of view.

Dr. Collins knows that, to a child, a visit to the eye doctor can be a frightening experience. So she's done everything possible to change that.

Dr. Collins' waiting room is a playroom. And her eye exams are child's play. Because instead of looking at eye charts, your infant or toddler will watch a special puppet show. It's a process called Preferential Looking, developed specifically for pre-verbal children. To your older child, Dr. Collins' pediatric testing equipment resembles the sci-fi technology they've seen in movies. So eye exams are fun.

Your child's eyesight is a precious gift. Ensure it. With regular eye exams by Slidell's only Pediatric Ophthalmologist, Dr. Candace Collins. She could help your child see a world of difference.

Tiger soccer team beats Harrison Central, Gulfport

After losing their opening match of the second half of the season to Long Beach 2-0, Bay High rolled up two victories to bring their record to 5-3.

Tuesday night, Bay High saw action against the Harrison Central Red Rebels. After losing two key players in the first half, one to injury and one to a red card, the Tigers played the Rebels to a 0-0 tie at the end of both regulation and overtime play.

Bay High's stopper Richard Watson was taken out of the game after only 20 minutes, due to an ankle injury, and did not return.

The Tigers played a total of 75 minutes with only 10 players after a red card was issued 25 minutes into the first half.

Jason Loiacano scored the winning goal in a sudden-death shoot-out. Also scoring during the shoot-out were Scott Barnes, Gerrit Carver, Jeff Dunlap, Shawn Keener and Lee Murphree.

Bay High's junior varsity lost 3-0.

Led by senior Scott Barnes, the Tigers edged Gulfport 2-1 on Friday night.

Both goals were scored by Barnes and were unassisted.

The Admirals' only goal came late in the second half.

Bay High Defensive Player

Junior Michelle Sheppard was chosen Defensive Player of the Month for the Bay High Lady Tiger Basketball team for December. According to Coach Ann Lathrop, Michelle averages seven steals and eight rebounds per game. "Michelle is an excellent defensive player and hustler. I have never coached anyone who gets up and down the court as quickly as she does. She is a smart defensive player," Lathrop said.

scored in double digits. Andy Rethmeyer scored the highest in single digits, with 9 points. Kivlan said, "The 8-point lead Hancock had at the half kept them within sight, but when they increased it by three, they put the win out of our reach."

"It says a lot about these boys to play as well as they did after losing so badly to the same team 48 hours earlier. We may have lost, but we played a heck of a game."

SSC's next game is a home match against the Mercy Cross Crusaders—tonight.

Kivlan said, "Although we beat this team earlier in the year I don't want the boys to take them lightly. Conference play is over, but I still expect an all-out effort."

Enriching experiences

Coast Episcopal School program offers new horizons for students

BY TRACI BONNEY
In one room, a shutter clicks. In another, the story of the Good Samaritan is told by a "newscaster."

Outside, watermelon seeds are poked into small containers of soil. These activities and others are part of Coast Episcopal School's Enrichment Program. The program rewards students for good behavior, homework completion and academic achievement by giving them a chance to explore areas outside the "three Rs."

Program coordinator Mark Lesniowski said the program, which began at the start of the school year, is broken into 11 groups: arts, theater, gardening, cross-country running, chess, doll clothes, service project (reading to the residents at Hotel Reed), cooking, opening and running a school store, billboard design, aerobics and video.

Lesniowski said almost all the approximately 110 students at CES participate in the enrichment program. "The students pick their top five or six groups, and we try to get everyone in their first or second choice. There's always a little grouching, but just about everyone is satisfied."

"Every once in a while we get a group that just bombs. When that happens, word gets around fast, and we don't offer it again."

The program runs in four five-to-six-week cycles during the year, with each cycle starting in the middle of a 10-week period. "That way we don't interfere with the exams and holidays," Lesniowski explained.

The enrichment classes are held from 2 to 3 p.m. on Fridays. Participation is not mandatory. Those students who do not participate in the enrichment program attend their regular classes.

Response from both students and teachers has been positive, Lesniowski said. "The kids like it because it gives them something different to do. The teachers like it for two reasons: first, it keeps the students enthusiastic throughout the week; second, it gives the teachers a chance to share things with the students, to experiment on things they may not have been able to do in the regular class setting and see how they go over with the students."

Most of the parents have expressed satisfaction with the program as well, he added.

"We like the program. It's a positive way to end the week."

"Newscaster" Amelia Taylor, left, interviews John Levert during a theater group skit about the Good Samaritan. On the floor is Ann Hopper, theater group teacher.

We've Had The Foresight To Ensure Your Newborn's Eyesight.

Dr. Candace Collins, Pediatric Ophthalmologist

Look who we've added to our Neonatal staff: Dr. Candace Collins, Pediatric Ophthalmologist. She's here to check the eyes of your newborn. Because a lifetime of good sight begins with life at first sight.

Dr. Collins is the only Ophthalmologist in Slidell who specializes in the examination and treatment of children's eyes. And this expertise is vital, especially for premature babies, whose eyes are not fully-developed at birth. Because undetected problems could eventually lead to blindness.

As a member of NorthShore's Neonatal staff, Dr. Collins will thoroughly examine and treat your baby's eyes as needed. She joins our staff Neonatologist, Dr. Marlene Buis, and a complete staff of pediatric nurses in our specially-equipped nursery. For the most complete newborn care on the north shore.

So if you're expecting a baby, come see all that NorthShore Regional Medical Center has to offer. You'll appreciate our foresight. And Dr. Collins will ensure your newborn's eyesight.

"Between The Expectant Mothers
And The Expectant Fathers,
I Never Know What To Expect."

When delivering babies, Dr. Douglas Slocum always expects the unexpected. Because, as he has often seen, sometimes the events which surround a delivery can be almost as exciting as the delivery itself.

As an Ob-Gyn, Dr. Slocum is often a part of this excitement. He's been amused by two mothers in labor debating who had the right to deliver first. He's seen even the toughest of men pass out in the delivery room. And he's often reassured anxious family members as they paced the halls.

He has also experienced, first hand, the many emotions expectant parents feel—he felt them, too, when his own children were delivered. So he can easily relate with his patients and their families.

The joys these experiences bring are the very reasons Dr. Slocum chose to be an obstetrician. Because for Dr. Slocum, there's no greater reward than seeing the tears of joy that fill parents' eyes when they hold their newborn baby for the first time.

So when you're expecting a baby, get the complete, quality obstetrical care you expect. From a doctor who understands what you're experiencing. Dr. Douglas Slocum.

The doctor is expecting you.

Here's A Special Security Blanket For Your Baby.

Dr. Marlene Buis, Neonatologist.

She's a special part of the nursery at NorthShore Regional Medical Center. And she's here to insure your peace of mind. With expert care. And extra attention. To make your baby's arrival safe and secure.

About six percent of all newborns need neonatal care. So chances are, your baby probably won't need to see Dr. Buis. But we're sure that's a chance you won't want to take.

As a Neonatologist, Dr. Buis has extensive training and experience in intensive care for newborns. As a member of our staff, she offers that care right here in our specially-equipped nursery. And our nurses provide careful, continuous monitoring, to make you feel even more secure. In fact, no other hospital on the north shore can offer your baby better care.

So when you're preparing for your baby's arrival, don't forget your security blanket, Dr. Marlene Buis. You may not need her. But isn't it nice to know she's here?

While they aren't pulling out the gas masks, local officials also are not taking lightly the possibility of a terrorist attack in Hancock County.

Civil Defense Director Bobby Boudin briefed law enforcement and fire personnel, along with city and county government workers, Monday about a January 24 meeting in Jackson where the domestic implications of Operation Desert Storm were outlined.

Boudin said Iraq has the capability to launch a terrorist attack in the United States, and commented of Iraqi dictator

Like the saying, "The squeaky wheel gets the grease," a plea from 19 city and county officials and agencies enabled the Emergency Food and Shelter Program to secure approximately $40,000 for emergency food and shelter for the needy.

The local agency was originally denied funding for the year, said FEMA board chair

Center

Task force
for teenagers' recreation complex

BY TRACI BONNEY

Money and members are the main needs of the Hancock County Youth Task Force Committee, according to committee member Officer Don Oco of the Bay St. Louis Police Department.

Oco said the 10-member committee needs as many additional members as it can get. The committee's primary objective right now is raising the funds to get a county youth center built.

"The center will be a place for youth to get off the streets, play video games, shoot some pool, hang out.

"In addition to the recreation, though, we plan to offer educational programs, drug abuse counseling, job skills training and other things."

Oco has contacted the county Board of Supervisors and the Bay St. Louis City Council about help in locating the land for a youth center and having it built. The supervisors have pledged the use of a county building for a year on a trial basis while a permanent center site is sought, and the city council has also offered assistance. The task force committee currently has no teenagers among its members, but Oco said any teens interested in getting involved should contact him at the Bay St. Louis Police Department, Tony Catania at Lakeshore Body Shop or Janet Polozola at Hancock Medical Center.

He added that he also wants to get more adults involved in the committee. "We need the community to help us and back us," he stated. "The committee has taken the bull by the horns, and if we back off now this thing is going to trample all over us."

he said should be filled out as quickly as possible to give FEMA and the FBI more information to use in tracking possible terrorist activity. He said copies of the reports would be given to local schools.

Boudin warned local officials to be on the lookout for anything unusual, no matter how seemingly insignificant. Something that seems unimportant in Hancock County could help federal officials construct a pattern that may avert or mitigate a terrorist threat.

"If a uniform comes up stolen, report it immediately," Boudin said, explaining that someone could use a uniform to gain access where he might not otherwise have it.
